

Jason M. Freas, Associate

Overview

Jason is an associate for Galloway's Mandeville branch, where his practice focuses on litigation on behalf of businesses and insurance companies primarily in the areas of General Casualty and Trucking & Transportation, as well as individuals in the areas of Family Law and Estate Planning & Administration. Jason is admitted to practice in all Louisiana state courts, United States District Courts in Louisiana, and the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit. He holds memberships with the New Orleans Bar Association, 22nd JDC Bar Association, Louisiana Bar Association, and Federal Bar Association.

A native of New Orleans, Jason earned his Bachelor of Arts in Business Marketing from Southeastern Louisiana University prior to earning a Juris Doctorate from Loyola University of New Orleans College of Law. While at Loyola, Jason also obtained a Certificate of International Law and studied international comparative law in Europe and Brazil.

In his personal time, Jason serves regularly in community development programs such as Wills for Heroes, Lawyers in Libraries, and other pro-bono events.

Education

- Southeastern Louisiana University, B.A.
- Loyola University New Orleans College of Law, J.D.
- Loyola University New Orleans College of Law, Certificate of International Law Legal Studies

Admissions

- All Louisiana State and Federal Courts
- Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals

Associations

- New Orleans Bar Association
- 22nd JDC Bar Association
- Louisiana Bar Association

Contact

#3 Sanctuary Boulevard
Third Floor
Mandeville, Louisiana 70471

jfreas@gallowaylawfirm.com
Office: 985-674-6680
Fax: 985-674-6681

Practices

Trucking & Transportation
Estate Planning & Administration

Industries

Trucking & Transportation

- Federal Bar Association