

Insurance

For over 30 years, Galloway has represented national and international insurance companies in a wide variety of insurance matters in both state and federal courts across the country. Our attorneys are recognized as aggressive trial lawyers who have prepared and tried cases in all areas of insurance defense.

We also are recognized as one of the premier bad faith and extra-contractual litigation defense firms across the Gulf South. Our attorneys who litigate bad faith matters have handled hundreds of commercial and personal lines claims and lawsuits for the firm's insurance clients. And we have the experience to handle a high volume of claims and lawsuits following devastating hurricanes, including class actions.

Our experienced insurance coverage and trial attorneys, with the assistance of trained support staff, deliver professional and cost-effective legal services to our clients. We are committed to seeing that our clients receive the services to which they are entitled in a prompt and diligent manner. To that end, we have obtained numerous favorable outcomes for dozens of insurance companies in cases relating to property damage, coverage issues, and improper adjustment of insurance claims.
