

Danny D. Schick, Associate

Overview

Daniel Schick earned his Bachelor of Science degree from Texas A&M University and graduated with highest honors from the University of Mississippi School of Law. While in law school, Daniel was a member of the St. Thomas More Legal Society and served as an executive board officer for the Mississippi Law Journal. Daniel also authored two separate scholarly papers that were published while he was still a student in law school.

Prior to joining the firm, Daniel worked at a boutique civil defense firm where he primarily represented clients in the maritime and aviation industries sued in personal injury lawsuits. Although Daniel's current practice involves many areas of the law, his primary focus remains in civil litigation, representing and defending clients throughout the various stages of litigation disputes.

Publications:

"Keeping with the Principle of Neutrality: Why Courts Should Not Extend Elmbrook's Mistaken Establishment Clause Analysis," 84 Miss. L.J. 391 (2015)

"Constitutional Law – Unlawful Searches – When the Police Investigate a Home Using a Drug-Sniffing Dog it is a Physically Intrusive 'Search' Within the Meaning of the Fourth Amendment," 83 Miss. L.J. 427 (2014)

Education

- University of Mississippi, J.D., summa cum laude
- Texas A&M University, B.S.

Admissions

- Texas
- U.S. District Court for the Southern and Eastern District of Texas

Associations

Contact

1301 McKinney Street
Suite 1400
Houston, Texas 77010

dschick@gallowaylawfirm.com
Office: 713-599-0700
Fax: 713-599-0777

Practices

Construction
Insurance Defense & Coverage
Litigation
Premises Liability

Industries

Construction
Insurance

- State Bar of Texas
- Houston Bar Association
- Houston Young Lawyers' Association