

Trent Wallis, Associate

Overview

Trent Wallis is an associate attorney in the Houston office. He is admitted to practice law in all Texas state courts. A graduate of Loyola University New Orleans College of Law, Trent focused his studies on admiralty and maritime law as well as international trade law. Prior to joining Galloway's Houston office, Trent served as a law clerk for two years in Galloway's New Orleans office.

During law school, Trent was an active member of Loyola's moot court program, competing as an oralist for both the JESSUP International Moot Court Team and the National Team. He was selected to serve as the coach for JESSUP International Moot Court Team during his third year at Loyola.

Trent completed his undergraduate studies at Millsaps College in Jackson, Mississippi, where he met his wife, Lauren. At Millsaps, Trent obtained his B.A. in Political Science with a distinction of excellence. He also served as President of both his fraternity, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, as well as Millsaps' Inter Fraternal Council.

An avid sports fan and native of South Louisiana, Trent supports his hometown LSU Tigers and New Orleans Saints. In his free time, Trent enjoys playing basketball and golf. He also enjoys spending time with his wife, Lauren, and their two dogs, Jax and Rey.
