

Mississippi Attorney Kathryn Platt to Present at NBI's Construction Law Seminar

Gulfport Attorney Kathryn Platt has been asked to present at The National Business Institutes's (NBI) seminar "Construction Law: Advanced Issues and Answers." The seminar will take place at the Gulf Coast Event Center in Gulfport, Mississippi on June 4, 2019. Kathryn will be presenting on the topic of "Ethics for Construction Attorneys." The session will explore client authority, contractual claims for attorneys' fees/expenses, dealing with unrepresented persons, and ethical concerns as "attorney for the project."
